Note 1.—The term "maximum monthly pay" referred to in Columns 3-6 denotes the maximum pay of the post substantively held at the time of proceeding on foreign service or the maximum pay of the higher officiating post. In cases where Government servants are officiating in higher post at the time of proceeding on foreign service, pension contributions shall be calculated as under :—

(a) Where the Government servant has completed three years continuous service in the higher post at the time of proceeding on foreign service.

(b) Where the Government servant has not completed three years continuous service in the higher post at the time of proceeding on foreign service.

(c) Cases where Government servants are not officiating in higher posts at the time of proceeding on foreign service, but are given officiating proforma promotion to such posts or cases where they are promoted to still higher posts.

(For computing the length of continuous service in the higher post, all the periods reckonable under rule 6.19-B of Volume II of these rules will count).

Note 2. The above rates of pension contributions include an element for the grant of extraordinary pension also.
